Harper has just released Blue Collar, White Collar, No Collar: Stories of Work, edited by Richard Ford. We are introduced to a must have collection of short stories about work. It's simple stuff. No magical realism here, just stiff reality. It is very hard to read the Andre Dubus story "Delivering", and not see Andre Dubus III in the pages, so much so that I think it is all truth. The story focuses on two kids who are spectators to battling parents. There are details: ashtrays ...
