More Than You Know Nan Parson Rossiter

More Than You Know by Nan Rossiter The girls are all back home to attend to their mother's funeral. As they are going through her thing they do find a ring with a card from David. None of them know who he is. Love how the phrase in the book describes love and is the title. I have a similar one for one of our grandson-to the moon and back and his response is I love you more... Love to hear Micah and Charlottes response as it is so near to ours.

Nan Rossiter has created a world so real and vivid that entering it is like going on a mini vacation. Her descriptions are second to none that I've read in my lifetime. My hat is off to her on that point alone. The characters are complex and evolving; you feel like you're walking with them day by day. You wonder about them and how they're getting on when you're not reading the book. The story is compelling – a real page turner. Great read. Thanks, Nan. I'll be looking for more of your ...
